To the Editor of the Times:

Sir-I am sure you had one eye partiy closed when you said that State and municipal officers do their best to enforce the prohibition law.

Commander Pennington did not say the officials of Camden and Trenton ET ABLAZE deliberately encouraged bootlegging and racketeering. He said they de- G DRY RAID liberately ignore it. But, unfortunately, the result is the same.

You give Judge Bourquin much Dec. 2 (A).—The praise, and justly so. If he was our kened ruins of an praise, and justly so. If he was our district attorney, and another like him our county prosecutor would him our county prosecutor would apter in dry agents' lest the bootleg incaught with the goods and enough ersey. evidence to convict in Colonel chment of agents LESS Reeves' time still be at large? To inder Special Agent hibition ad-say nothing of the Newark crowd ided the place late that murdered Agent Finellio and over an hour later st take the the later affair in the county. You know they would be in jail. And, if Judge Bourquin can put respect for law in the minds of law breakers. law in the minds of law breakers, nt. They thought why not our own judges?

The answer is easy. He wants some of the liquid y law violathe law enforced and they do not ottom of the tank, be given fuel We read in your columns every from an acetylene and alcohol son illicit Pennington is making a big dent in out the warehouse, may become the bootleggers' equipment, even if seconds the entire needy person he can't get them sent to jail.

Now if the newspapers would de-to prohibition headquarters clare a year's moratorium on saying ipty coal scuttle in one hand the law cannot be enforced, he'd legging tip in the other. have a lot better chance to succeed. legging tip in the other.

I. M. A. on must have fallen to a low pass, indeed, if its enforcers must barter in hungry women and children for its proper observance.

WEATHI Detailed

the price of Mr. Tutt's charity a distillery seized, a brewery shut up?

Wall Street Quotations

NO. 14,883

U.S. Officers In Rum Case

Liquor S, county. Could Land If Men Were on Job, He Asserts

"It semes inconceivable to me that they could unload liquor at Port of 75 Newark if the Federal government's officers were on the job."

This was Mayor Congleton's con- on the circumstances surrounding seizure the time the law was enacted the circumstances surrounding seizure the time the law was enacted the circumstances surrounding seizure the time the law was enacted the circumstances surrounding seizure the time the law was enacted the circumstances surrounding seizure the circumstances surrounding trucks loaded with liquor transferred from a boat at the dock of the Submarine Boat Corporation. Customs agents and rum runners shot it out before three of the latter were cap-

In the Mayor's statement he reviewed the situation at the port and disclaimed any duty on the part of the city to police the property where the Mercur Corporation is occupying property under lease from the War Department. All this land is on the north is part of the city-owned land in the hands of private parties and is treated the company of the city-owned land in the hands of private parties and is treated the company of the city-owned land in the same as all other private property in the city. Newark has no right to go in on this property except for the protection against crime.

off Newark Bay there are six boats Charlton street is held on a technical tied up on the north side. The gov- charge of possessing the weapon, while ernment holds them as rum runners police and dry headquarters make an investigation. At Seaboard Terminal, which is part The story of Agent John P. Cryer of the Mercur plant, they have a is that, while looking for evidence with President Johnson and the President of Abe (Longie) Zwillman, Third Ward Fillmore, both Dollar Line ships, are figure, four or five men engaged him in cause the crews of these ships have The men, described as members of S certain Chinese aliens among them, the club, learned that Cryer was an enforce patrols Port of Newark every ported the occurrence at the Fourth night. The one possible way in which Precinct Station. they can bring liquor by boat is

HELD IN RAID AFTER MIDNIGHT HEARING

At a midnight hearing conducted last night following a raid on a place at 109 Factory Street, Edward J. Laurendeau, who gave his address as 227 North Broad Street, was held under bail by United States Commissioner Marvin A. Spaulding.

The arraignment occurred at Mercer Court House after Spaulding had been summoned from his home. Bail was set at $2,500 which Laurendeau obtained. He will be given a further hearing on December 29.

A small quantity of liquor is alleged to have been obtained in the IICCITTI raid, conducted by three Federal agents. Ira W. Harris was in charge UUULL of the raiding party. Laurendeau, who was said to have been the bartender, was held for sale and posses-id at Newark sion of liquor.

It is difficult to follow Mr. Tutt's reasoning. Heaven knows the hungry must be fed, the destitute sheltered. But is rescind its action taken at a root meeting and retain the name origi meeting and retain the suiding?

ally given the building?
"We trust that your beard, at next meeting, will thoroughly consider this protest regarding the expenditure of the taxpayers' money for in unpercessary and sentimental purpose, necessary and sentimental purpose, bearing in mind the necessity of further expenditures for better school accommodations."

JERSEY JUDGESHIP BILL IS INTRODUCED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 (AP).—A bill to create a new Federal judgeship in New Jersey was introduced yesterday by Representative Perkins, of Bergen temporary judgeship which expired with the death recently of Judge William Runyon.

Under the present law, New Jersey has three Federal judges. Court dockets in the State are already overcrowded, Perkins said, and judges from other States have been brought The judgeship, which was occupied. in to handle prohibition cases.

by Runyon until his death, was c ated to handle prohibition cases. the time the law was enacted Senator Kean of New under consideration a similar be introduced in the Senate. said, however, that his bill migcall for the creation of two permaeither judgeships instead of one.

from Long Island or other points. Occasionally a consignment is intercepted. The bootleggers shrug their shoulders and hope for better luck next time.

"The Submarine Boat Corporation was operating at Port of Newark under lease the City of Newark gave the lease the City of Newark gave the Redeval government," he said. "The

Weapon 'Finder' Held

Guards on Duty at AH Hours. A prohibition agent was separated "It seems inconceivable to me that from two of his fellows and his rethey could unload liquor at Port of volver in the Third Ward last night. Newark if government officials were on the job. In Newark's inland channel Charlton street is held on a technical s a two other agents, he left them at street. In a ling 81,701 gallons, compared with fined to the Mercer County Jail to verly avenue and Barclay street. Club e 12,032 the previous month. Customs House license and there is a two other agents, he left them at Wacustoms agent there all day long.

"Directly across the channel from the c the Submarine Boat property the at 88 Waverly avenue, the headquarters the Customs House Department has a forcement officer. The dry agent says A number of its force aboard these that thereupon he was "eased" into the "club" and his revolver taken. He was s outnumbered, he explained, so he re-"The Prohibition Department's land treated, found the other agents and re-

Police Sergeant Melchior and the thur Kill, which meet at the lower end three agents went to the club. They Variant Bay If the Coast Guard say that, while they were searching for they would the revolver Adler stepped forward the docks of the Submarine Boat eat nent judgeships instead of one. the docks of the Submarine Boat bab The establishment reopened for busiCorporation, was scattered today by ple in the ness just one week ago.

Dock As Liquor Is

Madalian and the stablishment reopened for busimess just one week ago.

Madalian and the stablishment reopened for busimess just one week ago.

shots.

Three men were arrested, and two law violation of liquor when arraigned before united trucks, two-thirds loaded with liquor, given fuel states Commissioner Marvin S. Spaulding. William Foster, re-were seized.

A tip, which sent 15 customs guards on illicit, puted bartender, who gave his adinto action, was given by a woman, or become to dress as 332 West State State.

were fired, no one was but one casualty.

the smugglers did not return the idquarters of Newark headquarters, conducted the raid. They seized five hand fire. There was but one casualty one hand the raid. They seized five hand the smuggiers and one casualty. one hand the raid. They seized five barrels of beer after testing alcoholic content william Maugan, of the right leg other ceived lacerations of the right leg other. and a possible knee fracture when he attempted to board of fleeing truck. n to a lowhobby?" ne and

George Rossman, 40, arrested on

The three other trucks escaped in Cutt's readdarkness. the same highway on suspicion, the price of Mr. Tutt's charity a dis-sistants tillery seized, a brewery shut up?

has is not known. He refuses to give Forman's staff, is a hunter of no mean beamps he confects and how many he much information about it. "It's ability. He has forgotten how many just a hobby," he said.

Others on his staff, however, are lions. more outspoken about their respective hobbies and will talk at great chief executive officer on Forman's length about them—if permitted. As- staff, likes to swim. Only the freezsistant United States Attorney ing temperatures of Winter prevent Thomas V. Arrowsmith, whose job it him from taking a daily dip in the is to draw up all the indictments, can river or ocean. now give a little attention to his col- Isidore S. Worth, of Riverside, plays lecting of Indian arrow-heads. He the violin and he says he gets a great picks them up in all parts of the deal of pleasure out of it. No word country and there is not a haunt in has come from the neighbors. the State that is not known to him. Fishing is the hobby of John W. He knows more about the customs of Griggs, 2d, while Douglas V. Aitken, Indians than a score of anthropolo- of Bridgeton, is a yachtsman.

studies from time to time. Newark. in the Federal Building, 'll collection which he

'ain important occa-

HEAVIER IN JERSEY rsey vere late free for the late of 10 Paul Avenue, and the late of 10 Paul Avenue, and the late of 12/14/3/ months in jail.

jail sentences and heavier fines Avenue, and Alfred Befiore, arrested marked the prosecution of Federal dry the same raid, were dismissed and law violators in New Jersey district the charges dropped. courts in November as compared with Three men arrested during a raid October, a report issued today by on a farm in Monroe Township, Mid-Colonel Amos W. Woodcock, director dlesex County, were each sentenced judges in New Jersey in November Clinton Avenue; John De Rosse, of drew jail sentences averaging 87.9 211 Hudson Street, and Edward days and average fines of $303.99 Mitchell, of 17 Houghton Street. compared with 57.4 days and $233.1 Rocco Pagano, of Trenton, was fines in October.

174,828.31 gallons, over three times a liquor laws.
great as the quantity confiscated i Martin Vac all four New York State districts. I over three times the 50,390 gallons re Liquor seizures in Jersey were f possessing liquor. ported in Jersey.

JERSEY JUDGESHIP BILL IS INTRODUCED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11 (AP).-A bill to create a new Federal judgeship in New Jersey was introduced yesterday by Representative Perkins, of Bergen County. The bill would make permanent the temporary judgeship which expired with the death recently of Judge William Runyon. Under the present law, New Jersey has three Federal judges. Court dockets in the State are already overcrowded, Perkins said, and judges from other States have been brought in to handle prohibition cases. The judgeship, which was occupied by Runyon until his death, was created to handle prohibition cases. At the time the law was enacted, the Department of Justice expected the it Wa E flood of dry law cases would diminish and there would be no need for the opened additional bench.

Senator Kean of New Jersey has ES: under consideration a similar bill to NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 3 (P).—A band bit be introduced in the Senate. He is afternot orth Warre of liquor smugglers, unloading whiskey from a boat to five trucks near key from a boat to five trucks near nent judgeships instead of one.

into action, was given by a woman, ay become ay become the dress as 332 West State Street, was held under $1,000 bail along with were fired, no one was struck, and were fired, no one was struck, and the dress as 332 West State Street, was held under $1,000 bail along with the other defendant.

Federal Agents

Those arrested said they were:

Larry Brown, 26, of Elizabeth, and must bar udge Bourquin gave me. But John Smith, 25, captured by city de-lildren fo over now." Then he admitted John Smith, 25, Captured State Elizabeth. ing pictures and listen to the tectives on Route 25, near Elizabeth.

in ngry must me tell you about a feature ngry must to every night—" he began, DE 100, UNE UESUIUUE SHEILETED. But is interviewer, in a spirit of ssistants of Mr. Forman have pastimes. They range from the violin to sailing boats. Walter B. Petry, newest addition to deer he has shot, to say nothing of John Grimshaw, Jr., of Paterson, Anthony Guiliano, of Newark, likes by Representative Some of the flints he has picked nothing better than to play football.

The bill would make permanent up in the vicinity of Trenton. He up in the vicinity of Trenton. He was a star in college and later Liquor Charges Predominate In Imposition of U. S.

Sentences

Judge John Boyd Avis, in Federal Court today, dealth out severe penalties to a number of Trenton defendants who were charged mith liquor law violations.

As a result of the raid on his farm on the Allentown and Crosswicks Road, Yardville, last year, Alex Kovalik was fined $250 and sentenced to serve four months in jail.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Heavier Joe Marcola, of 342 North Clinton of prohibition enforcement, shows. to serve one month in jail. They "Scofflaws" who faced the Federa are Dominic Dimeco, of 251 North sentenced to serve 30 days in jail, Seizures in New Jersey were greate and his companion, Natale Minco, than for any other district in the also of this city, was given a sentence whole country, the beer total bein of 20 days, for violations of the

Martin Kaczor, of Yardville, was sentenced to serve four months in with New York State beer seizur jail, and Anthony Zappi, of Trenton, on charges of manufacturing and

Thomas Davis, who has been con-